A

Above and beyond the "57", by Kimbell Johnson, 6:3, p. 18.

Accomplishment and promise, by Nicholas J. Oganovic, 7:3, p. 1.

Agency for International Development, Shirtsleeves war in Vietnam, by Hubert H. Humphrey, 6:4, p.1.

Agricultural Research Service, Agricultural researchers discover new employee talents 'on the job', by Marcella Memolo, 9:4, p. 22.

APPLICATION FOR EMPLOYMENT

Modernizing the Federal application system, by Elizabeth B. Grove, 8:3, p. 25.

Armstrong, Neil, civil servant on the moon, 10:2, p. 12.

Assurance of leadership (Executive Assignment System), by John W. Macy, Jr., 7:2, p. 1.

ATTITUDES—FEDERAL EMPLOYEE

Federal feedback, by Jerry Kluttz, Bill Olcheski, and Joseph Young, 8:4, p. 1.

AUTOMATIC DATA PROCESSING

Computers aid job hunt in Defense Department, by William C. Valdes, 6:1, p. 17.

People and computers—design for the future, by Sheldon S. Cohen, 6:4, p. 8.

VA modernizes personnel operations, by Martin Wish, 6:3, p. 12.

AWARDS see also Federal Woman's Award; see also Incentive Awards.

Luckiest people, by John W. Gardner, 7:4, p. 6.

Outstanding handicapped Federal employee of the year, presented by Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, 10:1, p. 5.

President's Awards for Distinguished Federal Civilian Service, 6:1, p. 24; 7:1, p. 16; 8:1, p. 14.

"We don't say thank-you enough," by John W. Gardner, 7:4, p. 27.

B

BEAUTIFICATION PROGRAM

Make beauty your business, too! by Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, 6:3, p. 2.

BRITISH CIVIL SERVICE

Reformation in Whitehall, by O. Glenn Stahl, 9:2, p. 8.

Brookings fellowships for Federal executives, by Charles B. Saunders, Jr., 8:1, p. 22.

BUSINESS AND GOVERNMENT

Changing role of the businessman in public affairs, by David E. Lilienthal, 8:2, p. 19.

Public affairs: the demanding '70s, by Sol M. Linowitz, 7:1, p. 19.

C

CAREER SERVICE

Career executive, by Robert E. Hampton, 7:2, p. 8.

Career service, The Presidency and, by John W. Macy, Jr., 6:1, p. 1.

Careers in Government program, by J. Philip Bohart, 10:3, p. 22.

Changing role of the businessman in public affairs, by David E. Lilienthal, 8:2, p. 19.

Changing role of the Federal career executive, by Roger W. Jones, 8:4, p. 15.

Changing the pecking order, by Harold Howe, 9:1, p. 12.

Citizen's right to vote, by Hammond B. Smith, 7:2, p. 18.

CIVIL SERVANTS—CONTRIBUTIONS

Civil servants at work in the Navy's corporate laboratory, by David M. Ginsburgh, 7:2, p. 28.

EVA—a team effort by civil service employees, by Robert R. Gilruth and David L. Schwartz, 6:2, p. 13.

John Wesley Powell—he tamed the Colorado, by Elwood Bear, 9:3, p. 2.

Launching medicare: the people behind the program, by Roy L. Swift, 8:1, p. 18.

Men of quality, by John Herling, 8:3, p. 24.

Neil Armstrong, Civil servant on the moon, 10:2, p. 12.

Response to the Fairbanks flood—a team effort, 8:2, p. 16.

CIVIL SERVICE

Civil service—instrument of social change, by William J. Driver, 6:2, p. 12.

Civil service on the move, by Nicholas J. Oganovic, 10:1, p. 1.

Conversation with the Chairman, by Robert E. Hampton, 9:4, p. 1.

Federal employee's right to speak vs. the need for restraint, by Anthony L. Mondello, 10:3, p. 16.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION

New civil service board system, 6:2, p. 1.

"Our mission—to meet the rapidly changing needs of our society...", by Lyndon B. Johnson, 8:3, p. 1.

Sharpening employee skills, by Nicholas J. Oganovic, 6:4, p. 13.

Civil service—instrument of social change, by William J. Driver, 6:2, p. 12.

Civil service on the move, by Nicholas J. Oganovic, 10:1, p. 1.

COLLEGE RECRUITMENT

Careers in Government program, by J. Philip Bohart, 10:3, p. 22.

Look to the future, by Bernard Rosen, 10:2, p. 18.

Name of the game is Go Government, by Thomas G. McCarthy, 9:3, p. 23.

COMMUNICATIONS

Improving our service to the public, by Irving Kator, 6:2, p. 8.

"It sticks like a craw in my throat," by Sydney H. Kasper, 10:4, p. 30.

New concept in service to the public, by Irving Kator, 7:4, p. 16.

Ten fallacies of communication, by Thomas E. Anastasi, Jr., 10:1, p. 24.

War on gobbledygook, by John W. Macy, Jr., 6:1, p. 22.

COMPLAINT OFFICE

When Federal employees complain, by Irving Kator, 9:3, p. 16.

Computers aid job hunt in Defense Department, by William C. Valdes, 6:1, p. 17.

Concentrated employment program: a hand up for the needy, by Raymond Jacobson, 8:3, p. 13.

Conversation with the Chairman, by Robert E. Hampton, 9:4, p. 1.

Coordination comes to the wage system, by John W. Macy, Jr., 8:3, p. 2.

Creative Federalism at the grass roots, by John W. Macy, Jr., 9:1, p. 1.

CSC provides PPBS training, 6:3, p. 10.

Customs Service marks 180th birthday, 9:4, p. 27.

D

Defense Supply Agency, Trial through consolidation, by Jerome F. Bahr, 9:1, p. 21.

Department of Agriculture, Personnel management in, 6:1, p. 8.

Department of Defense, Computers aid job hunt in, by William C. Valdes, 6:1, p. 17.
Department of Housing and Urban Development, People, programs, and the promise of a Great Society, by Robert C. Weaver, 7:1, p. 30.
Developing administrative and professional personnel to serve an urban America, by Donald C. Stone, 8:2, p. 8.

E

EMPLOYEE-MANAGEMENT RELATIONS see LABOR-MANAGEMENT RELATIONS.
"Encouraged but not satisfied . . .", by Anthony M. Rachal, Jr., 8:4, p. 28.
EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY
Concentrated Employment Program: a hand up for the needy, by Raymond Jacobson, 8:3, p. 13.
"Encouraged but not satisfied . . .", by Anthony M. Rachal, Jr., 8:4, p. 28.
New directions in equal employment opportunity, by Robert E. Hampton, 10:2, p. 15.
New goals for equal employment opportunity, by John W. Macy, Jr., 6:2, p. 2.
Positive approach to equality, by Robert M. Cutts, 6:1, p. 12.
". . . to see that we get action," by Lyndon B. Johnson, 6:3, p. 1.
We must not settle for less, by Anthony M. Rachal, Jr., 7:1, p. 1.
EVA—a team effort by civil service employees, by Robert R. Gilruth and David L. Schwartz, 6:2, p. 13.
EXECUTIVE ASSIGNMENT SYSTEM
Assurance of leadership, by John W. Macy, Jr., 7:2, p. 1.
EXECUTIVE DEVELOPMENT
Brookings fellowships for Federal executives, by Charles B. Saunders, Jr., 8:1, p. 22.
Federal Executive Institute, a university in public service, 9:3, p. 14.
Federal Executive Institute today, reviving the "sense of discovery," by Frank P. Sherwood, 10:4, p. 26.
EXECUTIVE SEMINAR CENTER
Life with the power children, by John D. Weaver, 8:3, p. 16.
EXECUTIVES
Career executive, by Robert E. Hampton, 7:2, p. 8.
Changing role of the Federal career executive, by Roger W. Jones, 8:4, p. 15.
Image of the Federal executive, by L. J. Andolsek, 7:2, p. 12.
Manager of tomorrow, by Elmer B. Staats, 10:2, p. 4.
New management-level recruiting device, by Nicholas J. Oganovic, 8:1, p. 10.

F

FOST—an acronym for change in the National Park Service, by Mati Tammaru, 10:3, p. 28.
FACULTY, SUMMER EMPLOYMENT
From campus pillar to Government post, by Nicholas J. Oganovic, 9:3, p. 8.
Federal agencies and the new work-study program, by Nicholas J. Oganovic, 6:1, p. 6.
Federal employee's right to speak vs. the need for restraint, by Anthony L. Mondello, 10:3, p. 16.
FEDERAL EXECUTIVE BOARDS
Creative Federalism at the grass roots, by John W. Macy, Jr., 9:1, p. 1.
FEDERAL EXECUTIVE INSTITUTE
Reviving the "sense of discovery," by Frank P. Sherwood, 10:4, p. 26.
University in public service, 9:3, p. 14.
Federal feedback, by Jerry Kluttz, Bill Olcheski, and Joseph Young, 8:4, p. 1.
FEDERAL PERSONNEL MANUAL
The FPM and Navy's new civilian manpower directives system, by Philip Meyerson, 9:1, p. 24.
Federal training moves ahead, by J. Kenneth Mulligan, 7:4, p. 9.
FEDERAL WOMAN'S AWARD
1966 winners, 6:3, p. 16.
Federal woman's award, by Robert E. Hampton, 8:4, p. 21.
Federal woman's award, by Patricia R. Hitt, 10:1, p. 12.
Federal woman's award, by Dorothy B. Jones, 7:4, p. 20; 10:4, p. 25.
Federal Women's Program, by J. Philip Bohart, 10:1, p. 16.
Five days as a retarded laundry worker, by Bernard Posner, 7:1, p. 24.
FREEDOM OF SPEECH
Federal employee's right to speak vs. the need for restraint, by Anthony L. Mondello, 10:3, p. 16.
From campus pillar to Government post, by Nicholas J. Oganovic, 9:3, p. 8.
Future goals for public service, by John W. Macy, Jr., 6:4, p. 18.

H

HANDICAPPED
Five days as a retarded laundry worker, by Bernard Posner, 7:1, p. 24.
Handicapped: "mutual benefits" in Government service, by Harold Russell, 10:2, p. 10.
Outstanding handicapped Federal employee of the year, award presented by Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, 10:1, p. 5.
". . . we overwhelm ourselves with our own prejudices," by Bernard L. Boutin, 7:2, p. 33.
Happiness is a well-planned transfer, by Walter E. Mylecraine, 8:3, p. 21.
High cost of hierarchy, by David S. Brown, 7:3, p. 17.
Home and hoping—the Vietnam era veteran, by L. J. Andolsek, 8:4, p. 9.
How to make a lobby come alive, 8:2, p. 22.

I

Image of the Federal executive, by L. J. Andolsek, 7:2, p. 12.
Improving our service to the public, by Irving Kator, 6:2, p. 8.
INCENTIVE AWARDS
More than the job requires, by John D. Roth, 9:4, p. 8.
Why an awards program, by Nicholas J. Oganovic, 6:3, p. 28.
INTERAGENCY BOARDS OF EXAMINERS
Accomplishment and promise, by Nicholas J. Oganovic, 7:3, p. 1.
Interagency board program, by Raymond Jacobson, 6:3, p. 25.
New civil service board system, 6:2, p. 1.
INTERGOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS
Keystone of the arch, by John W. Macy, Jr., 7:4, p. 1.
Making the system work, 10:4, pp. 1, 2, 4, 7, 10.
Intern concept and Federal personnel management, by Nicholas J. Oganovic, 8:2, p. 1.
Internal Revenue Service, Design for the future, by Sheldon S. Cohen, 6:4, p. 8.

INTERNSHIP

Intern concept and Federal personnel management, by Nicholas J. Oganovic, 8:2, p. 1.

INVESTIGATIONS

Above and beyond the "57", by Kimbell Johnson, 6:3, p. 18.
Investment in youth, by Sylvia J. Bayliss, 6:2, p. 16.
"It sticks like a craw in my throat," by Sydney H. Kasper, 10:4, p. 30.

K

Keystone of the arch, by John W. Macy, Jr., 7:4, p. 1.

L

LABOR MANAGEMENT RELATIONS

Labor-management relations—where do we stand? by John A. McCart, Richard J. Murphy, and Felix A. Nigro, 8:1, p. 2.
New start in Federal labor relations, by W. V. Gill, 10:3, p. 9.
Objectives of unionism in the Federal service, by W. V. Gill, 9:1, p. 19.
Professional organization's dilemma, by W. V. Gill, 7:2, p. 15.
Task ahead, by John W. Macy, Jr., 8:1, p. 1.
Two views on labor-management relations, by Frank P. Zeidler and Felix A. Nigro, 7:2, p. 17.
Launching medicare: the people behind the program, by Roy L. Swift, 8:1, p. 18.
Life with the power children, by John D. Weaver, 8:3, p. 16.
Look to the future, by Bernard Rosen, 10:2, p. 18.
Luckiest people, by John W. Gardner, 7:4, p. 6.

M

Make beauty your business, too! by Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, 6:3, p. 2.
Making the system work, by Dwight A. Ink, Frank H. Bailey, Mark E. Keane, and Nicholas J. Oganovic, 10:4, pp. 1, 2, 4, 7, 10.

MANAGEMENT

Management by objectives . . . and beyond, by Nicholas J. Oganovic, 10:2, p. 1.
Perils and promise of the future, projection: 1970-75, 9:4, p. 12.

MANAGEMENT IMPROVEMENT

FOST—an acronym for change in the National Park Service, by Mati Tammaru, 10:3, p. 28.
Management information—blueprint for tomorrow, by Orville L. Freeman, 7:3, p. 10.
Manager and employee health, by Nicholas J. Oganovic, 6:2, p. 6.
Manager of tomorrow, by Elmer B. Staats, 10:2, p. 4.

MANPOWER PLANNING

Perils and promise of the future, projection: 1970–75, 9:4, p. 12.

MEDICARE

Launching medicare: the people behind the program, by Roy L. Swift, 8:1, p. 18.
Men of quality, by John Herling, 8:3, p. 24.

MENTALLY RETARDED

Five days as a retarded laundry worker, by Bernard Posner, 7:1, p. 24.
Modernizing the Federal application system, by Elizabeth B. Grove, 8:3, p. 25.
More than the job requires, by John D. Roth, 9:4, p. 8.

N

Name of the game is Go Government, by Thomas G. McCarthy, 9:3, p. 23.
National Civil Service League, Awards, 1967, 7:4, p. 6.
National Park Service, FOST—an acronym for change, by Mati Tammaru, 10:3, p. 28.
National Personnel Records Center, 8:3, p. 9.
New civil service board system, 6:2, p. 1.
New concept in service to the public, by Irving Kator, 7:4, p. 16.
New directions in equal employment opportunity, by Robert E. Hampton, 10:2, p. 15.
New goals for equal employment opportunity, by John W. Macy, Jr., 6:2, p. 2.
New look in summer employment, by Sylvia J. Bayliss, 8:2, p. 24.
New management-level recruiting device, by Nicholas J. Oganovic, 8:1, p. 10.
New road of unity and progress, by President Richard M. Nixon, 9:3, p. 1.
New start in Federal labor relations, by W. V. Gill, 10:3, p. 9.
New step in occupational health, by John E. Baer, 10:1, p. 19.
New use for Early Bird satellite, by Arthur Settel, 8:2, p. 14.

O

Objectives of unionism in the Federal service, by W. V. Gill, 9:1, p. 19.

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH PROGRAMS

Manager and employee health, by Nicholas J. Oganovic, 6:2, p. 6.
New step in occupational health, by John E. Baer, 10:1, p. 19.

OPERATION MUST

Agricultural researchers discover new employee talents 'on the job', by Marcella Memolo, 9:4, p. 22.
Operation "MUST" is turning talent on, by Jean Murray, 10:3, p. 5.
"Our mission—to meet the rapidly changing needs of our society . . .", by Lyndon B. Johnson, 8:3, p. 1.

P

PPBS: what and why, by Henry S. Rowen, 6:3, p. 5.
People and computers—design for the future, by Sheldon S. Cohen, 6:4, p. 8.
People make a government, by Arthur Settel, 7:1, p. 12.
People, programs, and the promise of a Great Society, by Robert C. Weaver, 7:1, p. 30.

PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

Performance rating revisited, by Husain Mustafa, 9:4, p. 28.
Perils and promise of the future, projection: 1970–75, 9:4, p. 12.

PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT

Civil service on the move, by Nicholas J. Oganovic, 10:1, p. 1.
FPM and Navy's new civilian manpower directives system, by Philip Meyerson, 9:1, p. 24.
Intern concept and Federal personnel management, by Nicholas J. Oganovic, 8:2, p. 1.
Personnel—our most important resource, by Orville L. Freeman, 6:1, p. 8.
Turning point in personnel management, by Robert E. Hampton, 10:3, p. 1.
VA modernizes personnel operations, by Martin Wish, 6:3, p. 12.

PERSONNEL RECORDS

National Personnel Records Center, 8:3, p. 9.
Positive approach to equality, by Robert M. Cutts, 6:1, p. 12.
Potential untapped is talent wasted, by Bernard Rosen, 7:3, p. 6.

Powell, John Wesley—he tamed the Colorado, by Elwood Bear, 9:3, p. 2.

PRESIDENT AND CIVIL SERVICE
Career service, The Presidency and, by John W. Macy, Jr., 6:1, p. 1.
". . . New road of unity and progress," by President Richard M. Nixon, 9:3, p. 1.
President Nixon, visit to twelve departments, 9:4, p. 16.
Professional organization's dilemma, by W. V. Gill, 7:2, p. 15.

PROGRAM BUDGETING
CSC provides PPBS training, by Chet Wright, 6:3, p. 10.
PPBS: what and why, by Henry S. Rowen, 6:3, p. 5.
Project Transition, by Thomas D. Morris, 8:2, p. 27.

PROMOTION SYSTEM
Second time around, by Nicholas J. Oganovic, 9:2, p. 1.
Public affairs: the demanding '70s, by Sol M. Linowitz, 7:1, p. 19.

PUBLIC SERVICE AS A CAREER
Changing role of the businessman in public affairs, by David E. Lilienthal, 8:2, p. 19.
Future goals for public service, by John W. Macy, Jr., 6:4, p. 18.

Q

QUALIFICATIONS
Changing the pecking order, by Harold Howe, 9:1, p. 12.

R

Recruiting success in Samoa, 8:2, p. 7.

RECRUITMENT
Careers in Government program, by J. Philip Bohart, 10:3, p. 22.
Look to the future, by Bernard Rosen, 10:2, p. 18.
Name of the game is Go Government, by Thomas G. McCarthy, 9:3, p. 23.
Wide, wide world of jobs, 9:4, p. 10.
Reformation in Whitehall, by O. Glenn Stahl, 9:2, p. 8.
Response to the Fairbanks flood—a team effort, 8:2, p. 16.

RETIREMENT
Salute to progress, civil service retirement system, 1920–1970, by Andrew E. Ruddock, 10:4, p. 16.

S

Samoa, Recruiting success in, 8:2, p. 7.
Science exhibit, Government's, now showing in California, 6:2, p. 26.

SCIENCE
Science administration: NIH training for a young profession, by Eugene A. Confrey, 9:1, p. 8.
What environment—for whom? by George E. Auman, 7:1, p. 6.
While tracking the skies, by John A. Coffey, 10:1, p. 6.
Second time around, by Nicholas J. Oganovic, 9:2, p. 1.

SECRETARIAL TRAINING
Television course for secretaries, 10:3, p. 26.
Service to the public, New concept in, by Irving Kator, 7:4, p. 16.
Sharpening employee skills, by Nicholas J. Oganovic, 6:4, p. 13.
Shirtsleeves war in Vietnam, by Hubert H. Humphrey, 6:4, p. 1.

SUMMER EMPLOYMENT
Investment in youth, by Sylvia J. Bayliss, 6:2, p. 16.
New look in summer employment, by Sylvia J. Bayliss, 8:2, p. 24.

T

Task ahead, by John W. Macy, Jr., 8:1, p. 1.
Television course for secretaries—from nine to five, 10:3, p. 26.
Ten fallacies of communication, by Thomas E. Anastasi, Jr., 10:1, p. 24.
". . . to see that we get action," by Lyndon B. Johnson, 6:3, p. 1.

TRAINING
CSC provides PPBS training, by Chet Wright, 6:3, p. 10.
Developing administrative and professional personnel to serve an urban America, by Donald C. Stone, 8:2, p. 8.
Federal training moves ahead, by J. Kenneth Mulligan, 7:4, p. 9.
Sharpening employee skills, by Nicholas J. Oganovic, 6:4, p. 13.

TRANSFER
Happiness is a well-planned transfer, by Walter E. Mylecraine, 8:3, p. 21.
Turning point in personnel management, by Robert E. Hampton, 10:3, p. 1.
Two views on labor-management relations, by Frank P. Zeidler and Felix A. Nigro, 7:2, p. 17.

U

URBAN DEVELOPMENT
Developing the administrative and professional personnel to serve an urban America, by Donald C. Stone, 8:2, p. 8.

V

VA modernizes personnel operations, by Martin Wish, 6:3, p. 12.

VETERANS
Home and hoping . . . the Vietnam era veteran, by L. J. Andolsek, 8:4, p. 9.
Project Transition, by Thomas D. Morris, 8:2, p. 27.
Vision of man: Government's science exhibit now showing in California, 6:2, p. 26.

VOTING RIGHTS
Citizen's right to vote, by Hammond B. Smith, 7:2, p. 18.

W

WAGE SYSTEM, COORDINATED FEDERAL
Coordination comes to the wage system, by John W. Macy, Jr., 8:3, p. 2.
War on gobbledygook, by John W. Macy, Jr., 6:1, p. 22.
"We don't say thank-you enough," by John W. Gardner, 7:4, p. 27.
We must not settle for less, by Anthony M. Rachal, Jr., 7:1, p. 1.
". . . we overwhelm ourselves with our own prejudices," by Bernard L. Boutin, 7:2, p. 33.
What environment—for whom?, by George E. Auman, 7:1, p. 6.
When Federal employees complain, by Irving Kator, 9:3, p. 16.
While tracking the skies, by John A. Coffey, 10:1, p. 6.
Why an awards program, by Nicholas J. Oganovic, 6:3, p. 28.
Wide, wide world of jobs, 9:4, p. 10.
Widening horizons, by Sylvia J. Bayliss, 7:4, p. 24.

Y

YOUTH—EMPLOYMENT
Investment in youth, by Sylvia J. Bayliss, 6:2, p. 16.
New look in summer employment, by Sylvia J. Bayliss, 8:2, p. 24.
Widening horizons, by Sylvia J. Bayliss, 7:4, p. 24.
Work-study program, Federal agencies and the new, by Nicholas J. Oganovic, 6:1, p. 6.

AUTHOR INDEX

A

Anastasi, Thomas E., Jr.
Ten fallacies of communication, 10:1, p. 24.
Andolsek, L. J.
Home and hoping . . . the Vietnam era veteran, 8:4, p. 9.
Image of the Federal executive, 7:2, p. 12.
Auman, George E.
What environment—for whom?, 7:1, p. 6.

B

Baer, John E.
New step in occupational health, 10:1, p. 19.
Bahr, Jerome F.
Trial through consolidation: the Defense Supply Agency story, 9:1, p. 21.
Bailey, Frank H.
Making the system work: State manpower and training needs, 10:4, p. 4.
Bayliss, Sylvia J.
Investment in youth, 6:2, p. 16.
New look in summer employment, 8:2, p. 24.
Widening horizons, 7:4, p. 24.
Bear, Elwood
John Wesley Powell—he tamed the Colorado, 9:3, p. 2.
Bohart, J. Philip
Careers in Government program, 10:3, p. 22.
Federal women's program, 10:1, p. 16.
Boutin, Bernard L.
Excerpts from his address on February 28, 1966, 6:3, p. 23.
". . . we overwhelm ourselves with our own prejudices," 7:2, p. 33.
Brown, David S.
High cost of hierarchy, 7:3, p. 17.

C

Coffey, John A.
While tracking the skies, 10:1, p. 6.
Cohen, Sheldon S.
People and computers—design for the future, 6:4, p. 8.
Confrey, Eugene A.
Science administration: NIH training for a young profession, 9:1, p. 8.
Cutts, Robert M.
Positive approach to equality, 6:1, p. 12.

D

Driver, William J.
Civil service—instrument of social change, 6:2, p. 12.

F

Freeman, Orville L.
Management information—blueprint for tomorrow, 7:3, p. 10.
Personnel—our most important resource, 6:1, p. 8.

G

Gardner, John W.
Luckiest people, 7:4, p. 6.
"We don't say thank-you enough," 7:4, p. 27.
Gill, W. V.
New start in Federal labor relations, 10:3, p. 9.
Objectives of unionism in the Federal service, 9:1, p. 19.
Professional organization's dilemma, 7:2, p. 15.
Gilruth, Robert R.
EVA—a team effort by civil service employees, 6:2, p. 13.
Ginsburgh, David M.
Civil servants at work in the Navy's corporate laboratory, 7:2, p. 28.
Grove, Elizabeth B.
Modernizing the Federal application system, 8:3, p. 25.

H

Hampton, Robert E.
Career executive, 7:2, p. 8.
Conversation with the Chairman, 9:4, p. 1.
Federal Woman's Award—a salute to women doers, 8:4, p. 21.
New directions in equal employment opportunity, 10:2, p. 15.
Turning point in personnel management, 10:3, p. 1.
Herling, John
Men of quality, 8:3, p. 24.
Hitt, Patricia R.
Ninth annual Federal Woman's Award, 10:1, p. 12.
Howe, Harold
Changing the pecking order, 9:1, p. 12.
Humphrey, Hubert H.
Shirtsleeves war in Vietnam, 6:4, p. 1.

I

Ink, Dwight A.
Making the system work: people in public service, 10:4, p. 2.

J

Jacobson, Raymond
Concentrated Employment Program: a hand up for the needy, 8:3, p. 13.
Interagency Board Program, 6:3, p. 25.
Johnson, Kimbell
Above and beyond the "57", 6:3, p. 18.
Johnson, Lyndon B.
"Our mission—to meet the rapidly changing needs of our society . . .", 8:3, p. 1.
". . . to see that we get action," 6:3, p. 1.
Johnson, Mrs. Lyndon B.
Make beauty your business, too! 6:3, p. 2.
Jones, Dorothy B.
Federal Woman's Award, 7:4, p. 20; 10:4, p. 25.
Jones, Roger W.
Changing role of the Federal career executive, 8:4, p. 15.

K

Kasper, Sydney H.
"It sticks like a craw in my throat," 10:4, p. 30.
Kator, Irving
Improving our service to the public, 6:2, p. 8.
New concept in service to the public, 7:4, p. 16.
When Federal employees complain, 9:3, p. 16.
Keane, Mark E.
Making the system work: quality manpower in the cities, 10:4, p. 7.
Kluttz, Jerry
Federal feedback, 8:4, p. 2.

L

Lilienthal, David E.
Changing role of the businessman in public affairs, 8:2, p. 19.
Linowitz, Sol M.
Public affairs: the demanding '70s, 7:1, p. 19.

M

McCart, John A.
Labor-management relations—where do we stand? 8:1, p. 2.
McCarthy, Thomas G.
Name of the game is Go Government, 9:3, p. 23.
Macy, John W., Jr.
Assurance of leadership (Executive Assignment System), 7:2, p. 1.
Coordination comes to the wage system, 8:3, p. 2.
Creative Federalism at the grass roots, 9:1, p. 1.
Future goals for public service, 6:4, p. 18.
Keystone of the arch, 7:4, p. 1.
New goals for equal employment opportunity, 6:2, p. 2.
Presidency and the career service, 6:1, p. 1.
Task ahead, 8:1, p. 1.
War on gobbledygook, 6:1, p. 22.
Memolo, Marcella
Agricultural researchers discover new employee talents 'on the job', 9:4, p. 22.
Meyerson, Philip
FPM and Navy's new civilian manpower directives system, 9:1, p. 24.
Mondello, Anthony L.
Federal employee's right to speak vs. the need for restraint, 10:3, p. 16.
Morris, Thomas D.
Project Transition, 8:2, p. 27.
Mulligan, J. Kenneth
Federal training moves ahead, 7:4, p. 9.
Murphy, Richard J.
Labor-management relations—where do we stand? 8:1, p. 3.
Murray, Jean
Operation "MUST" is turning talent on, 10:3, p. 5.
Mustafa, Husain
Performance rating revisited, 9:4, p. 28.
Mylecraine, Walter E.
Happiness is a well-planned transfer, 8:3, p. 21.

N

Nigro, Felix A.
Labor-management relations—where do we stand?, 8:1, p. 3.
Two views on labor-management relations, 7:2, p. 17.
Nixon, Richard M.
". . . a new road of unity and progress," statement for the Civil Service Journal, 9:3, p. 1.
Addresses to employees of twelve Cabinet departments during visits, 9:4, p. 16.

O

Oganovic, Nicholas J.
Accomplishment and promise, 7:3, p. 1.
Civil service on the move, 10:1, p. 1.
Federal agencies and the new work-study program, 6:1, p. 6.
From campus pillar to Government post, 9:3, p. 8.
Intern concept and Federal personnel management, 8:2, p. 1.
Making the system work: the Federal responsibility, 10:4, p. 10.
Management by objectives . . . and beyond, 10:2, p. 1.
Manager and employee health, 6:2, p. 6.
New management-level recruiting device, 8:1, p. 10.
Second time around, 9:2, p. 1.
Sharpening employee skills, 6:4, p. 13.
Why an awards program, 6:3, p. 28.
Olcheski, Bill
Federal feedback, 8:4, p. 3.

P

Posner, Bernard
Five days as a retarded laundry worker, 7:1, p. 24.

R

Rachal, Anthony M., Jr.
"Encouraged, but not satisfied . . .", 8:4, p. 28.
We must not settle for less, 7:1, p. 1.
Rosen, Bernard
Look to the future, 10:2, p. 18.
Potential untapped is talent wasted, 7:3, p. 6.
Roth, John D.
More than the job requires, 9:4, p. 8.
Rowen, Henry S.
PPBS: what and why, 6:3, p. 5.
Ruddock, Andrew E.
Salute to progress—civil service retirement system, 1920–1970, 10:4, p. 16.
Russell, Harold
Handicapped: "mutual benefits" in Government service, 10:2, p. 10.

S

Saunders, Charles B., Jr.
Brookings fellowships for Federal executives, 8:1, p. 22.
Schwartz, David L.
EVA—a team effort by civil service employees, 6:2, p. 13.
Settel, Arthur
New use for Early Bird satellite, 8:2, p. 14.
People make a government, 7:1, p. 12.
Sherwood, Frank P.
Federal Executive Institute today . . . reviving the "sense of discovery," 10:4, p. 26.
Smith, Hammond B.
Citizen's right to vote, 7:2, p. 18.
Staats, Elmer B.
Manager of tomorrow, 10:2, p. 4.
Stahl, O. Glenn
Reformation in Whitehall, 9:2, p. 8.
Stone, Donald C.
Developing administrative and professional personnel to serve an urban America, 8:2, p. 8.
Swift, Roy L.
Launching medicare: the people behind the program, 8:1, p. 18.

T

Tammaru, Mati
FOST—an acronym for change in the National Park Service, 10:3, p. 28.

V

Valdes, William C.
Computers aid job hunt in Defense Department, 6:1, p. 17.

W

Weaver, John D.
Life with the power children, 8:3, p. 16.
Weaver, Robert C.
People, programs, and the promise of a Great Society, 7:1, p. 30.
Wish, Martin
VA modernizes personnel operations, 6:3, p. 12.
Wright, Chet
CSC provides PPBS training, 6:3, p. 10.

Y

Young, Joseph
Federal feedback, 8:4, p. 5.

Z

Zeidler, Frank P.
Two views on labor-management relations, 7:2, p. 17.

The Journal is grateful to the Commission's Library Staff for their compilation of this Five Year Index.

* U.S. GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE: 1972—461-052/2